(b) The disposal of cases by the consumer disputes redressal agencies in the country is mainly affected by the inadequate infrastructure, adjournments, non-filling up of the posts of the Presidents/Members in the consumer disputes redressal agencies. To remove these obstacles, some of the important steps taken for the speedy disposal of cases by these agencies are as under:—

(i) One-Time-Grant of Rs. 61.80 crores provided to the States/ UTs by the Central Government to supplement their efforts to strengthen the infrastructure of the consumer disputes redressal agencies;

(ii) Monitoring of the working of consumer disputes redressal agencies through the National Commission;

(iji) States and Union Territories requested to take prompt steps to fill up vacant posts of President/Member in the consumer disputes redressal agencies and maintain a panel of suitable candidates for appointment as President/Member;

(jv) The Consumer Protection Act, 1986 has recently been amended in 2002 mainly to facilitate the quicker disposal of complaints by enhancing the capabilities of the consumer forums, strengthening them with more powers, streamlining the procedures and widening the scope of the Act. A provision has also been incorporated in the amendment to empower the senior-most Member to perform as President in the absence of the regular President of the National Commission, State Commission and the District Forum for smooth and uninterrupted functioning of these forums.

(c) and (d) The second Bench of the National Commission has been constituted which has started functioning with effect from 24th September, 2003 to dispose off the consumer cases rapidly.
